

I SAW MY GOD TODAY

ASHLEY SAULNIER

I saw my God today
It was odd, it was different
But, he's funny that way

I was walking down the road
Like usual nothing more
But then I heard something explode
And it hurt me to the core

I saw my God today
It was odd, it was different,
But, he's in command in every way

I didn't want to see him that way
But I had no choice how I came to him
Even though full of dismay

But how could I mistake that loud roar
Confusion and the more
I saw smoke and I saw terror
Was I wrong, was it an error?

I saw my God today
It was odd, it was different,
But, he's funny that way

And I hated how I saw him
Isn't he good, isn't he kind?
This was too much for my mind

There were screams and there was blood
On my own city's soil
Two large towers fell like a flood
Ripped and torn as easy as foil

I saw my God today
It was odd, it was different,
But, he's funny that way

When I looked up and all I saw
Were so many people, tears and all
No other actions but love from raw

At night, when it finally came
Candles and all the light
We hugged, we saw nothing
But God and his might

How can it be, how can it be so?
When all was lost and all was gone?
Ah, the mistake I made, all was not lost
Much was gained and much was won

We are afflicted in every way, but not crushed;
Perplexed, but not driven to despair;
Persecuted, but not forsaken;
Struck down, but not destroyed;

His love and His might
His unity, His life
We were all one
Through being broken and undone

In this world where we don't belong
We make due, we must
Because this life is short and is not long
Before we return to dust

I saw my God today
It was odd, it was different
And he's funny that way
